Partnership Support Form for Residence

For applications under the Partnership Category of Residence Instructions

Notes for New Zealand partners

This form is for supporting an applicant for New Zealand residence under the Partnership Category of New Zealand Government Residence instructions.

You must normally be 18 or older to support an application under the Partnership Category. If you are aged 16 or 17, you may only support an application under the Partnership Category with the permission of your parents or guardians.

Where this form refers to 'principal applicant' this means the person declared to be the principal applicant in the form Residence Application (INZ 1000). 'Applicant' means any person included in that residence application.

Completing this partnership support form does not mean that the residence application of the person(s) you are supporting will be approved. Applicants must meet all the requirements of the Partnership Category before they will be granted residence in New Zealand.

For full details of the requirements which must be met by applicants for New Zealand residence, please read our Self-Assessment Guide for Residence in New Zealand (INZ 1003).

Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007

Under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007 it is an offence to provide immigration advice without being licensed or exempt. If your immigration adviser is not licensed when they should be, Immigration New Zealand will return your application.

For more information and to view the register of licensed advisers, go to the Immigration Advisers Authority website www.iaa.govt.nz, or email info@iaa.govt.nz.

Lawyers provide immigration advice and are exempt from licensing under the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act. For more information and to view the register of immigration lawyers, go to the New Zealand Law Society website www.lawsociety.org.nz.

When filling in this form, write clearly in English using CAPITAL LETTERS.

To support a person under Family – Partnership Category

If you wish to support your partner (in relation to an applicant, 'partner' means the spouse, civil union partner or de facto partner of the applicant, which may include same-sex couples) for residence under the Family – Partnership Category, please answer these questions.

Are you a New Zealand citizen, or the holder of a New Zealand residence class visa, or the holder of a valid Australian passport?

Yes No

If you:

- · hold a valid Australian passport but do not hold a current New Zealand residence class visa, or
- hold a New Zealand residence class visa which was granted on the basis that you were the holder of an Australian permanent residence visa or an Australian resident return visa, you must prove that New Zealand is your primary place of established residence at the time your partner's application is made and assessed. For a list of acceptable evidence, see the Residence Guide (INZ 1002).

when filling in this form, please write clearly using CAPITAL LETTERS.

Section E Declaration by person assisting the New Zealand partner

This section must be completed and signed by the New Zealand partner's immigration adviser, or by any person who has assisted the New Zealand partner by providing immigration advice, explaining, translating, or filling in the form for the New Zealand partner. If the New Zealand partner does not have an immigration adviser, and no one helped the New Zealand partner to fill in this form, this section does not have to be completed.

I understand that after the New Zealand partner has signed this form it is an offence for me to change or add further information, or change or add any documents attached to the form, without making a statement identifying what information or material has been changed, added or attached and by whom. If I make these changes or additions, I must state on the form what they were, who made them and the reason they were made.
I understand that the maximum penalty for this offence is a fine of up to NZ$100,000 and/or a term of imprisonment of up to seven years.
I certify that the New Zealand partner asked me to help them complete this form and any additional forms.
I certify that the New Zealand partner agreed that the information provided was correct before signing the declaration.
☐ I have assisted the New Zealand partner as an interpreter/translator
☐ I have assisted the New Zealand partner with recording information on the form
☐ I have assisted the New Zealand partner in another way. Specify
I have provided immigration advice (as defined in the Immigration Advisers Licensing Act 2007) and my details in Section D: Immigration adviser's details, are correct.

Partnership support form checklist

Ensure you attach all the required documents to this partnership support form. If you fail to attach any necessary documents your sponsorship/partnership support form may be returned to you.

For speed of application processing and security of your documents we recommend that you provide certified true copies instead of original documents for any attachments.

USE ONLY	Information and documents you must supply	LIST
	Partnership support form signed by you and witnessed by a person authorised to take statutory declarations.
	Evidence of your immigration status in New Zealand. Evidence you are a New Zealand citizen can be certified true copies of:
	 a valid New Zealand passport, or a certificate of New Zealand citizenship, or a recent official statement of citizenship from the Department of Internal Affairs, or a New Zealand birth certificate.
	Evidence you are a New Zealand resident can be certified true copies of:
	a current New Zealand residence class visa a valid Australian passport, or an endorsement in a foreign passport indicating New Zealand citizenship.
	Note : Evidence that New Zealand is your primary place of established residence if you are a New Zealand partner who:
	 holds a valid Australian passport but does not hold a current New Zealand residence class visa, or holds a New Zealand residence class visa granted on the basis that you were granted an Australian permanent residence visa or an Australian resident return visa, can be submitted with this form or at the time of lodgement of your spouse or partner's application. For a list of acceptable evidence, see the Residence Guide (INZ 1002) .
	Have you attached police certificate(s) for all countries (apart from New Zealand) that you have lived in for 12 months or more in the ten years prior to the date the application is made?
	Note:
	 Only persons aged 18 years and over are required to provide police certificates.
	 You do not need to provide a police certificate from New Zealand (INZ will obtain this on your behalf if required).
	• Your police certificate(s) must be less than six months old.
	 For information on how to obtain a police certificate visit our website www.immigration.govt.nz/policecertificate.
	Accessing our website is the quickest means of obtaining this information, however if you do not have access to the internet you can:

	telephone us on +64 9 914 4100 if you are outside New Zealand

What do I do now?

When you have completed this partnership support form, give the completed form to the person(s) you wish to support. The person(s) you are supporting should include the form with their application for residence.

About the information you provide

The information about you and your family requested on this form is being collected so INZ can determine whether you are eligible to support a person for residence in New Zealand.

The main recipient of this information is Immigration New Zealand of the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment, but it may also be shared with other Government agencies which are entitled to this information under applicable legislation.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand.

This is not where your application should be sent.

The collection of the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act.

You have the right to see information about you held by INZ and to ask for any of it to be corrected.
